Affidavit

1. On October 5, 2005, the Geneva County, Alabama Sheriff's Department and the Alabama Bureau of Investigation executed a State of Alabama search warrant at 7983 S. County Road 49 in Faydette, Alabama, located in Geneva County, Alabama.

2. Jamie Allen HUTTO was present at the search at 7983 S. County Road 49 in Faydette, Alabama. During the search, agents located several items of evidentiary value including approximately four pipes used for smoking methamphetamine and digital scales. In addition, after being read his Miranda rights, Jamie HUTTO advised agents that he had approximately one pound of methamphetamine in his bedroom under his bed. Agents then seized the approximately one pound of methamphetamine from under the bed in Jaime HUTTO's bedroom. The Geneva County, Alabama Sheriff's Department has conducted a field test on the substance found under HUTTO's bed and it tested positive for methamphetamine. Furthermore, agents located a 12 gauge shotgun in Jamie HUTTO's bedroom lying on top of the bed that the methamphetamine was located under. Agents have been conducting surveillance on Jamie HUTTO for several months and had observed him at 7983 S. County Road 49 in Faydette, Alabama for long periods of time including over night. Further, during the search at 7983 S. County Road 49 in Faydette, Alabama agents located mail bearing HUTTO's name and the 7983 S. County Road 49 address. Agents also found other documents as well as clothes that indicated Jamie HUTTO occupied the bedroom where the methamphetamine was located.
